

The ‘Asian Diaspora’ of professed Assumptionists gathered in Brighton, MA recently for a day together, beginning with an informative power point presentation on the current communities and their apostolates in the Philippines by Fr. Bernard Holtzer, A.A. The community representing the Philippines, China, Vietnam, India and various house members then shared an Asian lunch together in the spirit of true Assumptionist hospitality. An afternoon excursion to Salem, MA followed before the returned trip home to Brighton, Worcester and Sturbridge.
