

THE ASSUMPTIONIST CENTER...

a place where we learn together,
a place where, together, we discover what it means to be Church.

In order to help that to happen, we need to think and talk together.

And so, we are happy to announce the first of this year's

CONVERSATIONS AT THE CENTER
on SUNDAY, OCTOBER 5

The Church outside of Boston:

A Perspective From Iraq

At this conversation, we are delighted to have Fr. Khalid Marogi share with us his experience of the church in Iraq.

Born in Nineveh, Fr. Khalid was ordained as a diocesan priest at Baghdad in 1992. In 1999, he arrived in Australia to minister to the newly established Iraqi Chaldean Catholic Community in Melbourne. In 2010, he joined the Catholic Diocese of Port Pirie (South Australia), and has since then been involved in prison ministry and ministry to asylum seekers.

Come and Listen

Sunday Eucharist at 11:00, followed by food, drinks and discussion

@ 330 Market Street, Brighton MA 02135