

THE ASSUMPTIONIST CENTER...

a place where we learn together,
a place where, together, we discover what it means to be Church.

In order to help that to happen, we need to think and talk together.

And so, we are happy to announce the second of this year's

CONVERSATIONS AT THE CENTER
on SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 9

The Church outside of Boston:

Perspectives on Mission in East & Southeast Asia

At this conversation, we are delighted to have Fr. Joseph Zhang, AA and Sr. Ashwena C. Apao share with us their experiences of what it means to be on mission in China, in the Philippines and in Myanmar.

Fr. Joseph Zhang, AA is presently the assistant pastor at St. Anne's and St. Patrick's Parish in Sturbridge MA. Before joining the Assumptionists, he served as superior of a minor seminary in southern China.

Sr. Ashwena is a Missionary Sister of St. Columban and she is from the Philippines. As a missionary, she was involved in educating the indigenous people in the Philippines, and spent several years in northern Myanmar engaged in youth ministry. Sr. Ashwena is presently completing her MA in Theology and Ministry / Mental Health and Counseling at Boston College.
