

On July 11th, 2015, two Assumptionist brothers, Ai Joseph Nguyen Chi and Gaston Mumbere Ndaleghana, were ordained priests by the laying on of hands of Cardinal Lacroix,, the Archbishop of Quebec.

The Liturgy of Ordination took place at the Montmartre Canadien in Quebec City. A Vietnamese and a Congolese choir added to the international flavor of the celebration. The Superior General, the Provincial and the Territorial delegate, as well as a number of Assumptionists from as far away as Budapest and Rome made the A.A. presence especially noteworthy.

Please hold our two newest priests in your prayers, as well as Brother Roberto Reyes Delgadillo who will be ordained in Mexico on July 19th.

