

THE ASSUMPTIONIST CENTER...

a place where we learn together,
a place where we discover what it means to be Church.

In order to help that happen, we need to think and talk together.

And so, we are happy to announce this semester's

CONVERSATIONS AT THE CENTER

on SUNDAY, OCTOBER 4, 2015

Christian Family Life in Contemporary Society

“As I was listening, I was thinking how important it is for us to share our home life and to help one another in this marvelous and challenging task of ‘being a family’.”
Pope Francis at the Prayer Vigil for the Festival of Families, Philadelphia, Sept 26, 2015

At this conversation, we are delighted to have Basia and Tomek Sobolewski, a married couple from Worcester, MA, share their experiences of what being a Christian family means to them.

Come, Listen and Share

Sunday Eucharist at 11:00am, followed by Conversations and Brunch

@ 330 Market Street, Brighton MA 02135

Note: The next conversation will be on Nov 1 and it will be a conversation on Laudato Si with Fr. Dan Horan, OFM.
