THE NUMBER: 9
The members of the Chapter were invited on Sunday to express their opinion among the nine apostolic priorities proposed by the Coordination.

WORD: To accompany
In order to carry out changes underway in the Congregation, the Assembly has repeatedly expressed this imperative and method.

Info
33rd General Chapter of the Assumptionists
April 28 - May 17, 2017

Day 17 | May 14

THE ESSENTIAL
From enumeration to choices of priorities

© Didier Remiot

Celebration with the missionary Christian community of Valpré

On Sunday the sunrise returns on Lyon. It seems as though to answer a request on paper discreetly slipped a few hours in the urn (a cardboard box) dedicated to complaints and waiting at the back of the room to collect the humours of the capitulates. Wish therefore heard before a new disturbance announced and the return of a strong heat. While waiting for the good news of the sky, placed between halt Sunday and continuation of the works, the Chapter alternated the tempos. After a period of work in committees, the members of the Chapter joined the missionary community of Valpré for the Sunday Eucharist, celebrated at 10:30 am and presided over by the Superior General. A troop of wolves has reinforced the community.

In the first part of the afternoon, the Assembly listened to the presentation of a revised version of the text of the Commission "Our priority missions" presented by Fr. Miguel Diaz Ayllon. This new document has incorporated the fruits of the exchanges noted during the "world café", the alternate round table of Saturday.

Then the Chapter continued its voting session to complete the new government of the Congregation. Fr. Miguel Diaz Ayllon (Province North America

33rd General Chapter of the Assumptionists - Day 17 - PDF file