Word: MOTION.
A text, amendment or motion may be presented for discussion at the General Assembly either by a Commission or by a capitulate. If it is by capitulate, it must have the support of another capitulate. On Monday, a motion was first introduced in the House on community organization.

The quote: "A rainy Chapter, a happy Chapter"
Popular proverb reprinted and adapted by Anne Ponce (Journalist Bayard-Press) on Facebook about the General Chapter.

Since Saturday the Chapter has kept its head in the texts elaborated by the committees. It is putting in place the government of the next six years and refining an adapted community organization.

The observations, appeals, recommendations, convictions, proposals, the whole program of the Chapter are put under examination for final adoptions. This is Patient work, demanding, and sometimes trying. Such led the Superior General to invite everyone to cultivate the necessary courage to carry out the work begun since April 28: "You have to keep the distance, in the confidence, despite the cumbersome work and accumulated fatigue. The translation service is very much sought after... and we thank our interpreters.

Moreover, any decision can lead to tensions. Let us remember that we are brothers! At the heart of our reflection must always be this fraternity, therefore charity, therefore forgiveness. It is an invitation to courage, participation: a chapter is the fruit of all! A new call to maintain this momentum of the provisional, a perspective reminded on many occasions these
