Perpetual vows of Br. Eddy Gonzalez, new website & more

Happy Feast Day to one and all. We are very happy to launch the newly updated and vibrant AA website. Our webiste will tour you around the many important aspects of the life and mission of the Augustinians of the Assumption in the Philippines. It is our hope that through this we will be able to enrich and strengthen our bonds of solidarity, friendship and collaboration. Please feel free to answer three very simple questions so that we may improve our contents. Happy browsing everyone.

Sincerly yours in Christ,

Feros Amparo, A.A.
