

On Saturday, June 5, 2010, Br. Dinh, A.A. was ordained a deacon by Bishop Robert J. McManus at the Cathedral of St. Paul, Worcester, MA. The concelebrated liturgy, which included several Assumptionsts, was attended by Bro. Dinh's mother and sister who came from Australia, many brother Assumptionists and friends. The ordination also included three other transitional deacons who were ordained for the diocese of Worcester. Following the ceremony, there was a reception for the newly ordained and their guests which continued the celebration of this most sacred and significant event in the lives of these men and the Church.

Following a summer that will include parish ministry and participation in the international Assumptionist Religious Dialogue in Brazil, Bro. Dinh will return to Assumption College and continue his ministry as a campus minister.

PHOTO GALLERY »