

The Lay Assumptionists from Sturbridge and Brighton hosted the Second Annual Post-Epiphany Celebration at Old English Road thanks to the generosity of Fr. Dinh and the local community, on Saturday January 12th, 2019. In addition to Lay Assumptionists, those in attendance included the religious, friends and invited guests.

The image depicts a group of people seated around a large wooden table in a room with a wooden ceiling and bookshelves, attending a presentation. A screen in the background displays a list of names under the heading "Members of Our Community". The room has large windows and a warm, rustic atmosphere. The people are engaged in the presentation, with some looking at the screen and others looking towards the front of the room.

Food, drink and joy, as well as a meal of peace and fellowship, are the focus of the celebration. The group is gathered around a large wooden table, with a crucifix on the wall behind them. The room has a warm, rustic feel with wooden paneling and a tiled floor.
