REFLECTING ON THE PAST WITH GRATITUDE

In 1901, the Archbishop of New York asked the Assumptionists to open a parish for the growing number of Hispanics in New York City, who until that time had no place of worship to call their own. The following year, a brownstone on 14th Street was converted into Our Lady of Guadalupe Chapel. Assumptionists would serve in this mission for over one hundred years.

May we continue to proclaim the Good News in today's world with vigor and enthusiasm.
