

Forgiveness. It can be such a hard thing to give and to receive. It can be easy to forgive the people we love, the people we are close to. But what about our enemies? That task can seem insurmountable. Then again, so is Christ's cross. Let's listen as Bishop Barron unpacks the cross of forgiving your enemy.