Pain. It is a feeling that everyone knows. We have all experienced it differently to varying degrees and at different points in our lives. It’s not something you can escape. Why is it that the Church focuses on a man in the most excruciating pain possible?

Bring to mind this image of a man on a cross and let’s reflect on this image with Bishop Barron:

