

Today's reflection is from Fr. Dennis Gallagher A.A., Provincial Superior of the Assumptionists in North America

What does it mean to live from the power of the resurrection? What does this look like? I'm reminded of one of Emeritus Pope Benedict's most quoted statements: "being a Christian is not the result of an ethical choice or a lofty idea, but the encounter with an event, a person, which gives life a new horizon and a decisive direction."

It's the second half of this statement that helps us understand what living from the resurrection really means – to encounter an event, a person a new horizon, a decisive direction for our lives.
