

By: Veronika Jaster

I'd like to sincerely thank the Assumptionist community for the opportunity to serve with the Congregation in Mexico and encounter God's love during my time there. I spent eighteen days at the Assumptionist parish center in Tlilapan, Veracruz. Throughout the volunteer work and the cultural immersion, it was a joy to serve, learn, and share life with all the people I met.

USUSA

