

On February 5, 2011 Brother Mbusa Katomeko Anicet was ordained a priest at the hands of the Most Reverend Edouard Kisonga, auxiliary bishop of the Archdiocese of Kinshasa. The ceremony took place in there Assumptionist parish of The Divine Master where Fr. Anicet had his diaconate experience. Two others were ordained with him, as priest, Fr. Michel M'vula of the Congregation Love and Liberty and, as deacon, Brother Alexandre, a Norbertine.

Surrounded by family, friends, and his Assumption brothers and sisters, Fr. Anicet gave thanks to all at a lively reception held at the parish hall next door.
