Assumption College's President's Lecture Series is a public forum in which important ethical, spiritual and human issues are illuminated and examined within the Catholic intellectual tradition. This year's first lecture will be held on Wednesday, September 21st at 7:00 PM in the Maison. The guest speaker will be Leonard Sperry, M.D. who will speak on "Psychology and the American Catholic Experience."

All lectures are open to the general public at no charge. For more information contact the college's web page: www.assumption.edu
