

For 125 years St. Anne's Shrine in Sturbridge, MA has been the site of the annual nine day Novena to St. Anne, from July 18th to July 26th, her feast day. This novena includes a daily Mass, a variety of speakers, music and a rosary procession on the final night. As part of the first night's celebration this year, Bishop Robert McManus will also be dedicating the new bronze sculpture, "Generations," depicting the Holy Family embraced by St. Anne and St. Joachim.

This year also marks the 125th anniversary of the combining of the formerly two parishes of St. Anne and St. Patrick's.

Fr. Peter Precourt, A.A., pastor of the parish, invites everyone to join him, parishioners and pilgrims from far and wide, to come and celebrate this grace-filled event!
