Sunday, December 2nd, 2012
5:00 PM
Kennedy Building K 112

The Assumption College Jazz Ensemble will be presenting it's second performance of the year on Sunday evening, December 2nd, in the auditorium at Kennedy Hall. The concert will start at 5 PM and will feature an eclectic mix of compositions made famous by Duke Ellington, as well as compositions by Miles Davis, George Gershwin, and Benny Golson. The 11 piece jazz ensemble is an excellent representation of the Assumption College Community and will also feature vocals by Assumption students Michelle Gibson and Marie Ebacher.

This concert is free and open to the public. We hope you can join us for this event.