

"Let us come to God not with our feet but with our affections; let us come not by moving from one place to another but by loving. When one is transported by the heart, he or she changes affection by the movement of the heart."

St. Augustine of Hippo

HAPPY FEAST DAY!