

On Sunday, September 8th the community and residents officially began another year at the Assumptionist Center in Brighton, MA. Beginning at Mass and during the orientation session, the new religious members and residents were welcomed and invited to introduce themselves. Continuing the celebration, everyone then enjoyed a cookout in the backyard with guests joining in on the fun and festivities!