Station 2: Jesus carries his cross
The cross is a symbol of the Christian faith, and it is a reminder of the sacrifice of Jesus Christ. In the time of the pandemic, we are reminded of the cross as a symbol of hope and faith. We are reminded that we are all in this together, and that we must all work together to overcome this crisis. The cross is a reminder that we are all part of a larger community, and that we must all work together to build a better world for ourselves and for future generations.

Station 3: Jesus is helped by Simon of Cyrene, son of Anna and Joseph, as he carries the cross. The soldiers are mocking him and saying, "Save yourself, King of the Jews!"

Station 3: Jesus falls the third time under the weight of the cross. He says, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"

Station 4: Jesus is stripped of his garments. This is also depicted in the Gospel of John, where Jesus is shown standing, his body covered in wounds. He is wearing a white sash. Roman soldiers and other figures are present, some carrying the cross. In the background, a ladder is visible, and a crowd of people is gathered.

Station 1: Jesus is condemned to death. Pilate orders the soldiers to scourge him. Jesus is bound and led away by soldiers. (What each Station 2: Jesus is carried to the cross. Jesus is hoisted onto the cross and crucified. The Virgin Mary and other women are present. (What each Station 1: Jesus is taken down from the cross. Oh World, that Oppressed and Oppressed, who has the hour of our death: Amen.

Station 4: Jesus is laid in the tomb. Oh World, that Oppressed and Oppressed, who has the hour of our death: Amen.
