

By: Veronika Jaster

I'd like to sincerely thank the Assumptionist community for the opportunity to serve with the Congregation in Mexico and encounter God's love during my time there. I spent eighteen days at the Assumptionist parish center in Tlilapan, Veracruz. Throughout the volunteer work and the cultural immersion, it was a joy to serve, learn, and share life with all the people I met.

On the left, the bride is standing with the groom, and the best man is standing with the bride. The bride is wearing a white wedding dress and the groom is wearing a black tuxedo. The best man is wearing a dark blue shirt and jeans. The maid of honor is wearing a green dress. They are all smiling and looking at the camera.

