

Bro. Ryan Carlsen, A.A., a member of the formation community at Pavel House in Brighton, MA, graduated from The Theological Institute at St. John's Seminary on Tuesday, May 17th, 2016, with a degree of Master of Theological Studies.

While a student at the Institute, Bro. Ryan had been active in music ministry in his local community as well as serving at the Holy Trinity Nursing Home in Worcester. He is grateful to the Assumptionists for providing the opportunity to study and he looks forward to continuing his studies at the Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology in Brookline.

Congratulations Bro. Ryan!
