

THE ASSUMPTIONIST CENTER ...

a place where we learn together,
a place where we discover what it means to be Church.

In order to help that happen, we need to think and talk together.

And so, we are happy to announce this semester's

CONVERSATIONS AT THE CENTER
on SUNDAY, November 6

What's So Good About Being Married?

At this conversation, we are delighted to have two couples share their faith experience of marriage as a vocation.

The first couple is Brian and Allison Bialas, who are members of the Alliance for Lay Assumptionists. Brian, a former resident at the Center, is now a lawyer, and Allison a medical researcher at Harvard.

The second couple is William and Patricia Haggerty, who hail from St. Ann-St. Patrick parish at Sturbridge. They are now grandparents, and Patricia is also actively involved in the Alliance.

Come and join us for an intergenerational conversation on how we understand married life as a lived vocation in today's context.

Come, Listen and Share

Sunday Eucharist at 11:00am, followed by Conversations and Brunch
