

I am anxious to encourage you to make a gift of yourself to Our Lord, more particularly at Christmas. The triple incarnation of Jesus Christ in the manger, on the altar and in our own soul is a mystery that should consume us completely. Christmas, a symbol of spiritual childhood, is the expression of a mystery of faith that became a reality of life, of incarnation and of growth in his own existential rebirth. Alleluia!

Emmanuel d'Alzon