Synod on Youth: Why does it matter?

Pope Francis has called for a Synod this October to be focused on the theme of “Young People, the Faith, and Vocational Discernment.” Why is this important for the church today? What insights does it give of the experiences of young Catholics? How might it shape our practices of ministry with youth and young adults?

Join us for a conversation around these issues and more at the Assumptionist Center with Dr. Theresa O’Keefe and Mr. Andrew Mercado.

Dr. Theresa O’Keefe is Associate Professor of the Practice of Youth and Young Adult Faith at the School of Theology and Ministry in Boston College. She also leads the Contextual Education program that offers graduate students field opportunities to develop reflective practices that foster ministerial leadership.

Mr. Andrew Mercado is a recent graduate of Boston College with a Master of Arts in Higher Education. A former resident of the Center, he is currently engaged in vocation ministry with the Assumptionists.
