

Such enormous, inexplicable pain in the world. Looking back at Good Fridays over the years, there's always something: a Marathon bombing, a school shooting, a deranged pilot to graphically illustrate the point. This year we've gone global, with the whole world sheltered in place, while the "invisible enemy" takes its toll.

Read more...