

"Sin presupposes my freedom
I am not completely determined by forces outside of my control
I have the privilege of acting in accordance with the better angels of my nature"

- FR. DENNIS GAFFNEY PROVINCIAL

A while back, one of the priests here during the penitential rite at the beginning of Mass would ask forgiveness for our "limitations." I don't wish to personalize my reaction to this - this priest was not a native English speaker - but the substitution of limitations for sin is worth thinking about.
