

Jesus and Nicodemus by Brother Blair Nuyda, A.A.

Today's Lenten reflection is from Brother Brian Verzella, A.A.,

Parish Assistant at St. Anne & St. Patrick Parish

It has often been said that the Bible, from Genesis to Revelation, chronicles a divine love story that unfolds between Almighty God and humankind. Throughout salvation history, the Lord persistently sent his messengers to our ancestors because, as we read in the Second Book of Chronicles, "he had compassion on his people and on his dwelling place."
