

By: Veronika Jaster

I'd like to sincerely thank the Assumptionist community for the opportunity to serve with the Congregation in Mexico and encounter God's love during my time there. I spent eighteen days at the Assumptionist parish center in Tlilapan, Veracruz. Throughout the volunteer work and the cultural immersion, it was a joy to serve, learn, and share life with all the people I met.

www.missionarymagazine.com

On the left, the Groom is standing with the bride, and the bridesmaid is standing with the bride. The bride is holding a bouquet of flowers. The groom is holding a card. The bridesmaid is holding a card. The bride is wearing a white dress. The groom is wearing a black suit. The bridesmaid is wearing a green dress. The church is in the background.

