

As an elderly religious community, our joy is simply to pray and to be with others in all their stories. We praise God each morning and celebrate the Eucharist where we carry you in your loved ones in our prayer. Life is a gift from God who is so generous to share it with us. Follow Him, we share our life in common and celebrate every moment of it.