October, 2003- Assumption College celebrated the opening of the campus's new Science Center with a ribbon-cutting ceremony on Thursday, October 9, 2003. The ceremony took place in the atrium of the new building, with about 275 students, faculty, staff, Assumptionists, and distinguished guests in attendance. AC Press Release