

The International Formation Commission (IFC), made up of Fr. Emmanuel Kahindo (Vicar General-Rome), Fr. Richard Lamoureux (USA), Fr. Iulian Prajescu (Romania) and Fr. Jean-Paul Sagadou (Burkina Faso), has just completed a week-long working session (5-13 November, 2012), in Worcester (USA).

We are grateful to our American confrères for welcoming us with such warmth and generosity during our stay in the community at Emmanuel House on the campus at Assumption College in Worcester.

Our days together included times for prayer, for work, for meals shared with the different communities in the region, and for a variety of meetings. Shortly after coming together we were able to attend the ordination of one of our Congolese brothers, Bernard Kambale Musondoli, by Bishop Robert McManus of Worcester. The ordination was held in the Chapel of the Holy Spirit at Assumption College.

At the College, daily prayer and the Eucharist are shared with the Religious Sisters of the Assumption, with the novitiate community, with lay people, friends and students in the area who come together faithfully, morning and evening, for the prayer of the community.
