

Thirty Minutes for God

By Seve, Andre

New City Press; New City Press, New York edition, 1986

125 pages

In this book we find a rich resource to support and strengthen one's basic hunger for God and how different forms of mental prayer and meditation can nourish that growth. As this hunger and desire for intimacy with God develops and hopefully governs one's life, prayer becomes an integral part of all the activities of daily living, according to the author.
