

Mary, Our Mother, Our Model and Our Queen
Scriptural Meditations by Emmanuel d'Alzon
Translated by M. Angeline Bouchard
New City Press, New York, 1988
136 pages

As the title indicates, this is a reflective work of thirty scriptural meditations by Fr. d'Alzon. In it the author, guided by the solid foundational teachings of the Church, shares many insights into the ever increasing understanding of Mary's role in the early Church. Through reflecting on her many virtues, we can clearly see Mary as the model for all Christians past, present and future.
