

Christ is my life - The spiritual legacy of Emmanuel d'Alzon
By Andre Seve, A.A.
Translated by M. Angeline Bouchard
New City Press, New York, 1988
175 pages

As the Augustinians of the Assumption prepared to celebrate the anniversary of their founder's death, Fr. Seve was inspired to write a book on Fr. d'Alzon. Though not a biography, it does reflect Fr. d'Alzon's impact on his community and the Church of his times in a masterful way by focusing on his love of Christ, his Trinitarian spirituality, his commitment to prayer, his dedication to study and zeal for the Kingdom of God. This book would truly be a source of encouragement for anyone interested in the renewal of the Church today.
