Dear Brothers,

At the end of this 2nd Plenary General Council composed of the Superior General, his Council and the Provincial Superiors, we want to let you know about the major subjects on which we have shared and have made decisions about in the course of these ten days.

The Plenary General Council is a new experience that surprises us, provokes us, harries us, questions us and at the same time imposes on us the responsibility of mobilizing the whole of the Congregation. We firmly believe in the action of the Holy Spirit of God that we felt very present in our discernment and in making our decisions.
