

I had an opportunity to go back to visit my home country, Vietnam during 2014's summer. It was good for me to be back after many years away from home and also it was a great time for me to be allowed to do my apostolate work during summer there. Although I was born and grew up in Saigon, when I came back, I realized that things have changed a lot since I was away from the city. I spent three weeks with my family. During that time, I just paid some visits to the altar-servers in the parish by joining with them in their weekly meetings. I was asked by them to give a short sharing of the Gospel in their meeting, because I was actually the one who initiated it when I was in charge of them, and that custom has been keeping up to the present.

Nguyệt Explains the Peace Tower to her family by English at a Show of the Binh Duong Hotel. Needless, Valerius Olayinka Oluwalana, a Nigerian, is the pastor of the church. He is the one who is standing in front of the church.

Besides, he also helped to contribute in organizing the altar-servers and the liturgy, as well as the 60 seats ago but the was is before, but this part was by Father Khane. It was established over

MY SUMMER TIME IN VIETNAM: SWEET HOME!

Last Updated Thursday, 28 August 2014 21:15

are, and on a scale of 1 to 10, how much do you like it? (1 = not at all, 10 = very much)

Copyright © 2014 by [Name]. All rights reserved. This content may not be copied, distributed, or reproduced without the written permission of the copyright owner.

MY SUMMER TIME IN VIETNAM: SWEET HOME!

Last Updated Thursday, 28 August 2014 21:15

brothers and I for one week, passed by in a very bright back weeks with my family, one week with my Copyright © 2014 by [unreadable text] All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted, in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or by any information storage and retrieval system, without the prior written permission of the copyright owner.