

Centennial Mass (left to right): Fr. Benoît Gschwind, provincial of Europe, Fr. Leo van der Klauuw, Fr. Benoît Grière, superior general

On Tuesday, January 6, 2015, the feast of the Epiphany, a large group of Assumptionists from Holland, Belgium, Paris, Rome, and Bucharest gathered in Boxtel and were joined by Oblate Sisters of the Assumption, lay Assumptionists, friends, and local dignitaries to mark the centenary of the Assumptionist presence in this country.

It was on January 5, 1915 that the first permanent Assumptionist community was founded in Holland at what is known as the Kasteel Stapelen, a 16th century castle purchased by the Congregation from a wealthy Catholic family interested in bringing a religious community to the region. In short time the Assumptionists made of it an alumnate (minor seminary) and eventually put up a separate building to accommodate the growing number of young people interested in such an education.

Timon Ben Marwan – La destruction des églises des Sons d'Antioche: les sources syriaques

Janina Salomon – Vladimir Soloviev and His Philosophy of the Universal Church

THE JOURNAL

Andreas Schwegler – The Resurrection of the 'Gente Catholica': The Debate between Vladimir Soloviev and Aleksandr Kireev on the Question of Church (Re)Union (1883-1897)

Rolf Gierstl – The Syncretistic Dimension in Paul Florenskii's Religious Aesthetics

OF EASTERN CHRISTIAN STUDIES

Wafwan Abu – The Portrayal of Christianity in Egyptian Textbooks

Herman G.R. Jongh de Vos Schepers – Christian Arabic Bibliography 1996-1999

2005, 1-2

Fr. Arno Burg, A.A. author of the history of the Assumptionists in Holland