

Boston University where Fr. Vincent obtained a Master's degree in Theology and had begun his doctoral studies before returning to the Congo in 2013 has announced that it will be establishing a memorial scholarship and lecture in his memory.

Donations can be made at: <http://www.bu.edu/machozi>

This scholarship will be offered to one or more students from Africa, attending Boston University's School of Theology, with a preference for those who are committed to study and service focused on justice and peace. Recipients shall be selected by the Dean of the School of Theology or her/his designee.

This lecture will address global issues of justice and peace, with a particular focus on the grassroots transformation of society.

The University has also set up a site where friends, colleagues, and acquaintances can leave messages: a site where alumni and friends can post their memories and prayers. Please email Jaclyn 300 words or less and list your name and relationship to Father Machozi to be included.
