Station 2: Jesus carries his cross
The cross is a symbol of our whole life, and it is the only way to reach the Kingdom of God. It is the way of the cross, the way of suffering and death, the way of the cross.

Station 3: Jesus is helped by Simon of Cyrene, son of Anna, to carry the cross. Simon is a Samaritan, and Jesus is a Jew. Simon is a Samaritan, and Jesus is a Jew. Simon is a Samaritan, and Jesus is a Jew.

Station 4: Jesus is helped by Simon of Cyrene, son of Anna, to carry the cross. Simon is a Samaritan, and Jesus is a Jew. Simon is a Samaritan, and Jesus is a Jew. Simon is a Samaritan, and Jesus is a Jew.

Station 1: Jesus is condemned to death. Pilate orders the soldiers to scourge him. He is then crowned with thorns and dressed in a purple robe. The soldiers mock him and beat him with their hands and clubs.

Station 2: Jesus is carried to the place of execution. He is helped up the cross by two men. He is nailed to the cross. The Virgin Mary is seen in the crowd, along with other women and soldiers.

Station 12: Jesus is taken down from the cross. Oh World, that Oppressed and Oppressed people, who are suffering from the pain of our death. Amen.

Station 13: Jesus is laid in the tomb. Oh World, that Oppressed and Oppressed people, who are suffering from the pain of our death. Amen.
